Having worked in the coffee bar all day, Marco comes home and he is exhausted. He had quite a busy day and he tells his mum about it...

- I quickly answered it, but no one spoke, I could only hear someone (moan) and (hang up) the phone.
- I saw him (wave) at me, so I walked over and opened the door for him.
- He introduced himself as Jim. I told him that I was very glad he'd come and asked Jim whether he had any experience working in a coffee bar. He said that he did, but I noticed him (get) a little worried.
- But then I watched him (cut) the first pieces of cake carefully and (arrange) them on the counter and I thought that I had even noticed him (give) a short smile.
- But then... Well, to sum it up: I heard a lot of coffee cups (fall) down, I saw Jim (spill) juice everywhere and I heard customers (complaining) about the service all the time.
- I'm so sorry, mum, but after days like this... I just can't see myself (work) in a coffee bar for the rest of my life!
