

CEO of H&K

- You want to produce and sell firearms in the US
- You do not want more regulations on weapons
- You think your firm is economically beneficial for the US

Anti-gun activist

- You do not want H&K to expand to the US
- You think producing and selling weapons for profit is unethical
- You want more regulations on firearms

Prudent politician

- You are caught in the middle
- You profit from the gun lobby
- You are forced to act against the increase of mass shootings in the US

Discussion leader

- Your task is to introduce the topic and keep the discussion going
- For your preparation consider...
  - What do the different parties want?
  - How can they justify their interests?
  - How can they justify neglecting others' interests?
  - How does their background information support their arguments?
