

Bedingungssätze, Typ 2

Bedingungssätze vom Typ 2 sind „Was wäre, wenn...“-Sätze.

Der Sprecher hält es für unwahrscheinlich (oder es ist unmöglich), dass die Bedingung aus dem if-Satz erfüllt wird.

| if-Satz:simple past | Hauptsatz:would/could + Infinitive  |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| If I were Sean,         | I would dance with all the other girls. |
| If I were the DJ,       | everyone would look at me.              |

① Fill in the gaps.

If I (go) to the dance, I (fall) on my knees. Then everybody (look) at me, if I (be) on the ground. If they an ambulance, I (feel) so embarrassed. Probably, someone (turn down) the music, if my classmates (build) a circle around me. Then Sean and his friends (laugh) at me, if I (be) in the middle of the room. If the teachers (call) my parents, my entire family (arrive). That (be) even more embarrassing. If I (be) brave, I (go) to the ball, but I'm not.

② What if you were Raina?

- Write a text (at least 6 sentences).
- Begin with: If I were Raina, I ....
