

- ① Read the text and fill in the gaps with the words:
looks, helps, good-looking, grey-eyed, naughty, curl.

I know Helen, a little girl. She is very 1) . She is 2) and dark-haired.

She has got a little 3) right in the middle of her forehead.

Helen is a good little girl. She listens to her mother most of the time. When she is good, she is very, very good. She 4) her mum about the house and 5) after her toys. Then her mother says to her, „Good girl!“

Sometimes Helen is 6) . She doesn't listen to her mother. She doesn't want to read. She doesn't want to write. She cries and shouts. Then her mum says to her: „Behave

- ② True or False?

- 1. Helen is fair-haired.
- 2. She always listens to her mother.
- 3. Sometimes Helen is bad.
- 4. She doesn't want to learn.
- 5. Helen is a pretty girl.
- 6. She cries and shouts.

- ③ Write about yourself. Use:

(Your name?) My name is ...

(Your age?) I am ... years old.

(Your looks?) I am ...-haired and ...-eyed.

(Your Likes?) I often

(your character?) I am... . most of the time.

Sometimes