A full-page sheet of white graph paper featuring a uniform grid of thin black lines. The grid consists of small squares covering the entire area. There are two horizontal lines that divide the page into three equal sections, serving as margins. These lines are slightly thicker than the other grid lines. The top margin is at approximately one-third of the way down from the top edge, and the bottom margin is at approximately two-thirds of the way down. The central section between these two lines is the largest and contains the main body of the grid.
