

Australia

- ① Fill in the gaps.

Australia is a country and a continent in the southern hemisphere (Südhalbkugel) of the world. Its capital is and its biggest city is . The native people of Australia are called . Australia is the home of many dangerous , for example, snakes and spiders.

- ② What can you see in these pictures? Match.

Bildunterschrift

New Zealand

③ Fill in the gaps.

New Zealand is a country next to Australia.

Its capital is and its biggest city is . The native people are the . The official languages of New Zealand are and . In the language of the Maori, New Zealand is called , which means „land of the long, white cloud“.