

Monster rules for monster schools

- ① In our last lessons we talked about rules at school or at youth hostels. We can use modal verbs to express what is allowed and what is not.

Mon – the monster – goes to Monster School in Monsterland.

- Draw a picture of Mon.
- Then write ten funny rules for Monster School. Use the simple present.

you may	use roller-skates	under the table
you may not	speak German	in pyjama trousers
you should	play with toys	on Fridays
you should not	write with green pencils	in English lesson
you must	use bows and arrows	in the cafeteria
you need not/needn't	wear pink leggings	without shoes on you must not/mustn't	eat apple pie	in summer/winter
...	eat other monsters	with your tail
	shake hands	before lunch
	clean the blackboard	with dirty hands
	...	...

Hi, I am Mon!

Simple present!!

- ② You visited Monster School in Monsterland last year.

- Put 5 of your school rules into the simple past.
- You must use substitutes for your modals!

Simple past!!

- ③ We will go to Monster School on our class trip next year.

- Put 5 of your school rules into the will-future.
- You must use substitutes for your modals!

Will-future!!

Modals and their substitutes

For more information see textbook p. 165.

