

info

You already know how to build the comparative and superlative of adjectives. This worksheet is meant to help you revise on how to do that.

① Match the adjective with the correct comparative and superlative.

hot	drier/driest
beautiful	more beautiful/ most beautiful
dangerous	bigger/biggest
dry	hotter/hottest
big	more dangerous/most dangerous

② Match the adjective to the rule for building the comparative and superlative.

long	one-syllable, ends with consonant + Vowel + consonant —> double the consonant + -er/-est
friendly	one-syllable —> add -er/-est
good	irregular cases
large	two-syllable, ending in -y —> change y to i +er/-est
exciting	adjectives with 2+ syllables —> use more/most
big	one-syllable, ends with -e —> add -r/-st

③ Fill in the correct form of the adjective.

The Outback is much _____ (hot) than the coast.

The Great Barrier Reef is one of the _____ (beautiful) places in the world.

Sydney is _____ (big) than Canberra.

Some animals in Australia are _____ (dangerous) than in Europe.

Mount Kosciuszko is the _____ (high) mountain in Australia.

The desert is _____ (dry) than the rainforest.

Uluru is one of the _____ most famous _____ (famous) rocks on Earth.

Life in the city is often _____ (modern) than life in the countryside.

Englisch