

Bedingungssätze, Typ 2

Bedingungssätze vom Typ 2 sind „Was wäre, wenn...“-Sätze.

Der Sprecher hält es für unwahrscheinlich (oder es ist unmöglich), dass die Bedingung aus dem if-Satz erfüllt wird.

if-Satz: simple past	Hauptsatz: would/could + Infinitive
If I were Sean,	I would dance with all the other girls.
If I were the DJ,	everyone would look at me.

① Fill in the gaps.

If I (go) to the dance, I (fall) on my knees. Then everybody (look) at me if I (be) on the ground. If they an ambulance, I (feel) so embarrassed. Probably, someone (turn down) the music if my classmates (build) a circle around me. Then Sean and his friends (laugh) at me. if I (be) in the middle of the room. If the teachers (call) my parents, my entire family (arrive). That (be) even more embarrassing. If I (be) brave, I (go) to the ball, but I'm not.

② What if you were Raina?

- Write 3 sentences.
- Begin with: If I were Raina, I
