

What are Conjunctions?

Conjunctions...

...are words that link other words, phrases and sentences together.

You can distinguish between three different types of conjunctions and each conjunction has different linking words:

Coordinating Conjunctions...

...connect two words or groups of words with the same grammatical structure.

Example:

Marc and Andrew cooked dinner together.

Subordinating Conjunctions...

...connect dependent clauses with independent clauses.

Example:

I will help you whenever you need me.

Correlative Conjunctions...

...connect words, phrases and sentences with complementary relationships. They are always used in pairs.

Example:

Neither he nor she enjoys math.

Linking words:

for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so

Linking words:

although, because, before, until, whenever, if, since, once

Linking words:

Either/or, Both/and, Not only/but also, Rather/than, Whether/or ① Choose the correct conjunction.

- a) Do you prefer to eat in a restaurant at home?
- b) my friend my sister can help me.
- c) I want to have breakfast we can go swimming.
- d) I love with him he loves someone else.
- e) I was very tired I had to work late.
- f) I was feeling better having a cup of coffee.
- g) good the movie was I prefer going to the theater.
- h) I am not very sporty I like to go running.

② What type of conjunction is it?

This is a...

③ Read the comic and circle the linking words.

④ Write down the linking words that were used in the comic.

⑤ How many linking words can be found in the comic?

There are _____ linking words.