

-
- ① Take the bilingual dictionary. Open it on pages 326 and 327. What are the words at the beginning and the end of the two pages?
-
- ② Can you find hallway on the pages?
-
- ③ „half“ has three different entries. What are they?
-
- ④ What's the German translation for „half-wit“? Look the German word up and write down the English word. Now check the German translation of the English word.
-
- ⑤ Now take the monolingual dictionary. Look up the word „idiot“. Which page is it on? Which entries can you find on the double page?
-
- ⑥ What is the synonym given here?
Which information do you get in the two entries?
-
- ⑦ On these pages are some words with a key symbol. What does it mean?
-
- ⑧ There's also a blue box. What information does it give you?
-
- ⑨ At the end of the dictionary you can find green pages. Which one do you think is most helpful?
-
- ⑩ Which pages in the monolingual dictionary are especially helpful for you as a German student?
-
- ⑪ Create a similar task like the one at the beginning for your classmates.
-