② Headquarters

Even though there's an unwritten law that no stranger is allowed into Headquarters, we know a little about what is inside.

Chapter 2 - Greetings from the Hereafter

③ Victor Hugenay is dead

When someone dies, friends or acquaintances often place an obituary (Nachruf) in the newspaper. What might an obituary of Victor Hugenay by the Three Investigators look like?

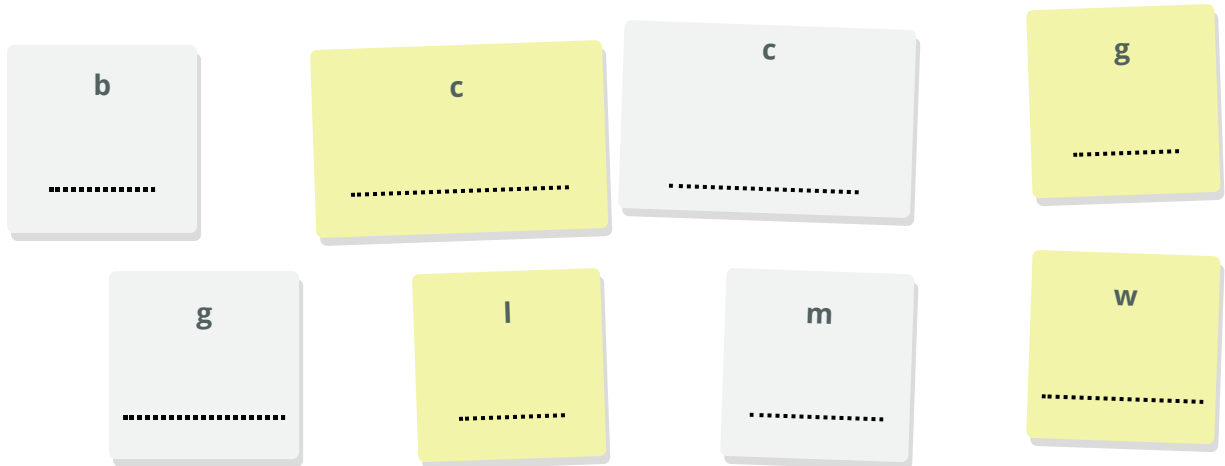

- Use the information from chapter 2 (pages 15-17) and design the advert for the newspaper.

⑦ Do not temper with the evidence

Everybody has a unique pattern of curved lines on the end of a finger or thumb that can be used to identify criminals.

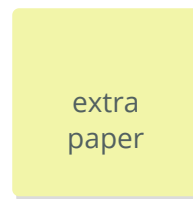

Wash and dry your hands thoroughly and fill out the fingerprint card. You need an ink pad.

FINGERPRINT CARD
SIGNATURE		LAST NAME	FIRST NAME	MIDDLE NAME
ALIASES - AKA		DATE OF BIRTH MONTH - DAY - YEAR
THUMP	INDEX FINGER	MIDDLE FINGER	RING FINGER	LITTLE FINGER

⑧ Criminal offences and investigations

Create a fingerprint memory of the story.

- Draw a thumbprint shape
 - leave space between your lines
 - make sure your lines do not cross
 - sketch the lines with some distance so that you can write between them
- Write text between the lines while reading
 - sentences or
 - words connected to the story

Chapter 6 - Darkness

⑨ Spanish missions in California

Between 1769 and 1833, Spanish missions established 21 Catholic outposts in what is now the US state of California in order to convert the indigenous people to their faith. Mission San Diego de Alcalá was the first Spanish mission station in California. The property belonged to the tribal territory of the indigenous Kumeyaay people.
