

① What's the time, please?

Write down the time in numbers and phrases. Ex: 6:11 = It's six eleven; it's eleven past six

|       | time | phrase |
|-------|------|--------|
| 07:28 |      |        |
| 11:45 |      |        |
| 12:30 |      |        |
| 4:15  |      |        |

② Fill in the correct form of the verb. Remember- he she it, das 's' muss mit.

Mrs Preston's. day: Every morning I (to have) breakfast with my husband and Dave. Dave always (to sleep) late. It (to be) difficult for him to get up. Then I (to go) into my office and (start) the computer. There (to be) usually a lot of people and their pets in the waiting room. Some people (to come) every week, because their pets are really ill. At twelve o'clock I (to have) lunch with my secretary. We usually (to eat) a sandwich. She (to like) ham and cheese, but I (to like) ham and cucumber (Gurke). At one o'clock my husband usually (to come) to the surgery to say hello. He sometimes (to hurry) back, because he is really busy. Dave (to come) home from school at 3.30. That (to be) really late. He then (to do) his homework and he sometimes (to play) computer games after homework. We (to have) dinner at 6 o'clock. My husband and I often (to watch) TV and I (to go) to bed at 10:30. I like my busy days.
