

Name:

Fish and chips

Fish and Chips – A Traditional British Meal

Task: Learn about the classic fish and chips and the oldest shop that sells England's number one fast food. For that read the 2 texts!

kiddle entry

the oldest shop

hint

If you don't understand a word, look it up in the dictionary or ask your guide for help!

Name:

Fish and chips

word box

fried · vinegar · alcohol · mushy · choose · cod · Wales · sauce · England · 19th · fat · basement · traditional · gherkins · gravy · deep-fried · 1871

① Fill in the blanks with the correct words.

Fish and chips is a _____(1) British meal. It is made of chips and a _____(2) fish fillet. The fish is put in a special mixture (called batter) and then _____(3). People often eat it with salt and _____(4). Fish and chips are easy to find in _____(5) and _____(6). The first fish and chip shops were found in East London in the late _____(7) century. The most popular fish is _____(8), but people also eat haddock, plaice or other white fish. Many shops let customers _____(9) their fish. A very old fish and chip shop in London is called Rock and Sole Plaice. It opened in the year _____(10), more than 150 years ago! It is in Seven Dials, and during World War II, people met in the _____(11) to help others.

Popular side dishes are _____(12) peas, pickled _____(13), onions, or curry _____(14). In the north of England, people also eat chips with _____(15).

Fish and chips are also sold in mobile shops. Most fish and chip shops do not sell _____(16). Some people say fish and chips are not healthy, because they have a lot of _____(17).