

Step 1: Select relevant information from the text.
write down only information you need!

Step 2: Select relevant information

- with regard to the situation
- with regard to the addressee
- consequences for your mediation

Step 3: Structure the relevant information and phrases in the target language. Watch out for aspects that are specific to one culture and explain them in more detail (if necessary)