

Let's start our Book Diary!

① Create a cover page

- Make sure to include the book title, the author's name, your name and the school year.
- Design the rest of the first page of your diary the way you want. Let your creativity shine!

② Portraits of the main characters

- Read the rest of the first chapter.
- Scan it afterwards for physical descriptions.
- Sketch down the described characters + give them their name.
- Continue to write down important facts & characteristics + colour in your sketches as you go on reading and discover new hints.
- Leave room in your diary for additional characters you will encounter later in the book.

Name:

Main facts & characteristics:

- e.g. 54 years old
- mother of the main character
- scared of the dark
- ...

③ Create a Vocabulary Guide

- Make a column (such as the example on the right side) with the three categories:
vocabulary - sentence - synonym/meaning/
- Fill in the new vocabulary you find while reading.
Also, write down the sentence where the word appears + search for the English meaning or synonyms in your dictionary/reliable internet sites.
- Leave enough space for additional vocabulary you will encounter during the rest of the book.

| vocabulary | example sentence | synonyms/meaning |
|------------|--------------------------------------------|------------------|
| cancer | Depression is not a side effect of cancer. | serious disease |

④ Writing your first diary entry (short story)

- Read the second chapter.
Remember to continue the character-portraits + vocabulary guide.
- Read the last few sentences of the chapter again. How do you think the story will continue? Write your own chapter with around 250 words (do not read Chapter 3 before writing).
