

Introduction

Until the Internet came up, people got news and information from newspapers and magazines. Special magazines for teenagers first came up in the United States in the 1940s. A prominent teenager magazine "BRAVO" has been published in Germany since 1956. Today you'll take a look at some teenager magazines. You can find out, what they are about.

Jicket Teen magazine

① Before you start - What are you interested in?

- Name three most important interests, that you have.
- Note the most important first and the less important last.

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

② Take a look at some magazines

- Here you can find links to three different teen magazines.
- Take a look and choose one of them for the next task

teen spirit e-zine from 2011

Brainspace - teen magazine

SHOUT - teen magazine

Is there a teen magazine for your interests?

If you want to look for a teen magazine for your special interests you can try one from this list of teen magazines: <https://t1p.de/kr1hq>

③ What's the magazine about?

- Write down the name of the magazine.
- Write down a List of the main topics that you can find in the magazine.

④ Would you read a teen magazine?

- What topics have to be in a teen magazine for you?
- or
- What are features or things, that you don't like about teen magazines?

⑤ How do you get the latest news on your interests?

- Please note the type of media you use (eg. Vlog, Blog, Social media).
- Can you name some things why you chosen this source of information (= Informationsquelle)?
- Is it better than a teen magazine?
