

When to use „do“ and „make“

DO:

- Good or bad things
 - study
 - work
 - hobbies
 - repetitive tasks
- often task or part of a routine

MAKE

- food
 - decisions
 - sounds
 - relationships
 - money
- often creating something from nothing

① Chosse „make or “do” for each phrase!

a friend
 an appointment
 badly
 a snack
 a job

② Chosse „make or “do” for each phrase!

money
 your best a choice
 a noise
 some exercise

③ Choose „make“ or „do“. Use the right tense!

Yesterday I my homework and my mom dinner. Suddenly my brother came and said: „Do you want to some money?“ I was confused but he continued: „I know you don't like the laundry, but we could make a deal!“ My mom stopped food and looked at him. My brother whispered „ You can 5 dollars, if you the dishes after dinner and I will the laundry. Deal?“ I was confused but 5 dollars and not laundry sounds like a plan, also we have a dishwasher. I shook his hand and he left. My mom looked at me and said: „ I already the laundry, as a suprise for you and our dishwasher broke down“