

Merry Christmas

①

We wish you a [redacted].

In England children don't get their presents on [redacted].

[redacted] comes at night, when all the children are asleep.

He climbs down the [redacted], to leave the presents under the christmas tree.

In the morning of the 25th of December the children get up early and unwrap their [redacted].

Christmas dinner is served in the afternoon. English people eat [redacted], vegetables and [redacted].

In Austria children get their presents on [redacted].

The [redacted] comes in the evening and put the presents under the [redacted].

The children unwrap their presents.

Christmas dinner is served in the [redacted]. Austrian people eat [redacted] with dumplings and cabbage or [redacted] with potato salad.

We all celebrate Christmas in memory of the [redacted]. The presents we get aren't as important as the love to each other.

