

info

This worksheet is about auxiliary verbs and their substitutes in the simple present. In the next exercises, you can fill in one of the following verbs: to be allowed to, to be able to, should, can, to have to.

This is an interactive worksheet, you can type in words directly.

- ① Fill in the correct auxiliary verb/ substitute verb. The following sentences are all positive. Use can only when other words do not fit.

A doctor _____ know the correct medication to help the patients.

A pilot _____ fly very long distances.

Students _____ use mobile phones after school.

A teacher _____ correct many tests.

An engineer _____ check the machines carefully.

- ② Fill in the correct auxiliary verb/ substitute verb. The following sentences are all negative. Use can only when other words do not fit.

A bus driver _____ use a mobile phone while driving.

I think a chef _____ prepare good food without fresh ingredients.

A mechanic _____ repair every car immediately.

An office worker _____ work at the weekend.

A journalist _____ write false information.

- ③ Fill in the correct auxiliary verb/ substitute verb. The following sentences are questions. Use can only when other words do not fit.

_____ a nurse work during the night?

_____ a student _____ leave the classroom early?

_____ a doctor always listen to the patients?

_____ a firefighter _____ climb tall buildings?

_____ a teacher _____ prepare many lessons?

Click on the QR-Code to see the solutions