

JENNA AND THE GREEN TEENS

How to organize an environmental protest

Your group collaboratively works on an excerpt of the novel "Boys, Bears and a Serious Pair of Hiking Boots" by Abby McDonald. While reading the text, think about your role and specific tasks!

1. Read your role card and understand what you have to do.
2. Silently read the first paragraph at the same time as your group members. Take notes (use the space below).
3. Exchange your thoughts and answer all questions.
4. Move on to the next paragraph and start over.

 support

Use the language help on your role card!

Your notes:

First Paragraph (line 1-37) _____

Second paragraph (line 38-75): _____

Third paragraph (line 75-112) : _____

Tasks:

- ① Briefly summarize in your own words: What is the protest about?
- _____
- _____
- _____

- ② Make a list: Which items – according to Jenna – are needed to organize a successful protest?
- _____
- _____

- ③ For sprinters: During the protest Jenna is confronted by a boy from her class. Explain why it is sometimes rather difficult to convince people to take action to help the environment.
- _____
- _____