

Blog project

A blog (short for „web log“) is an online journal which is frequently updated. How to write a blog post: first-person „I“ engage and inspire readers. Involve the readers (ask questions)/p

pixabay

① In class: write with your classmates a blog post. (approx. 100 words) The topics are:

- Typical school break: How do you spend your time during school break between lessons? What helps you to free your mind?

- School subjects: Which subjects should be absolutely included in the curriculum and why?

- School building: What do you like about your school? What could improve the whole learning situation?

Useful words and phrases

Did you know that...? Have you heard of...? I recently came across... This post will... On the one hand..., on the other / As you can imagine... What's it like in your family country? Do you have any experience with...? This is why.../p

pixabay

② Semester project:

- In teams of 2-3 students
- 1 blog post by one team weekly
- Topics of your choice (e.g. free-time activities, film, music, holidays, ...)
- Regular blog comments