

Who was Shakespeare?

① With your group: create a poster that is presenting your topic well.

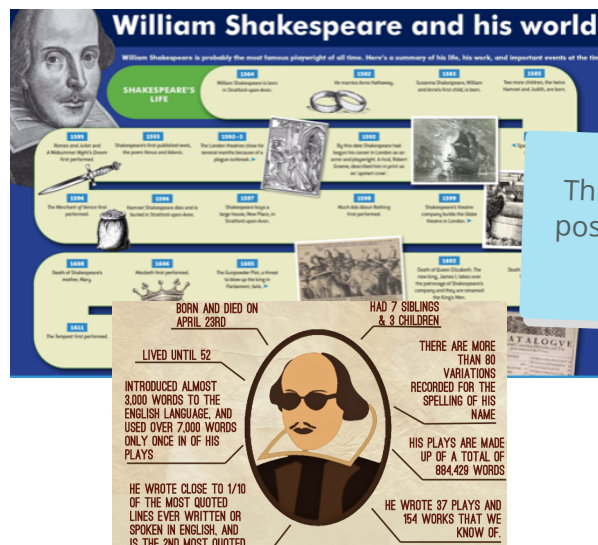

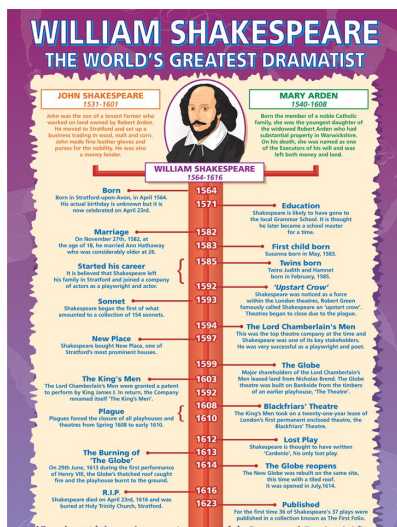

The following questions should be answered:

- Who was Shakespeare?
- What are important dates in his life?
- Where did he live? What was his daily life like?

Keep in mind:

- not everything you say should be written down (keep the bulletpoints short and precise)
- use colours to mark important topics
- use drawings or graphics to make your topic clearer.
- check everything for spelling mistakes.

This is how your poster could look like

The Elizabethan World

② With your group: create a poster that is presenting your topic well.

The following questions should be answered:

- Who ruled England during the Elizabethan Age
- Why was it also called the Golden Age?
- What are important dates and events during that time (Expansion, the Church of England..)?
- What did the people wear and eat?

Keep in mind:

- not everything you say should be written down (keep the bulletpoints short and precise)
- use colours to mark important topics
- use drawings or graphics to make your topic clearer.
- check everything for spelling mistakes.

The Shakespearean Theatre

③ With your group: create a poster that is presenting your topic well.

The following questions should be answered:

- How did a Elizabethan theatre look like? (Stage, seating...)
- Where were the theaters located?
- How was the audience?
- What is the Globe Theatre and why was it special?
- What role did a playwright have in that area?

Keep in mind:

- not everything you say should be written down (keep the bulletpoints short and precise)
- use colours to mark important topics
- use drawings or graphics to make your topic clearer.
- check everything for spelling mistakes.

This is how your poster could look like

The Elizabethan World View

- ④ With your group: create a poster that is presenting your topic well.

The following questions should be answered:

- What is the Great Chain of Being?
- Which role did Religion play in the Elizabethan Era?
- What about myths and magic?
- What is the theory of humors?

Keep in mind:

- not everything you say should be written down (keep the bulletpoints short and precise)
- use colours to mark important topics
- use drawings or graphics to make your topic clearer.
- check everything for spelling mistakes.

