

- ① Task: Write a comment expressing your opinion on climate change and its impact on the planet (180 words). Use the following text chunks and terms to help you:
- Text chunks: In my opinion, ... | The evidence shows that ... | A not other important aspect... | However, | While some might argue that | On the other hand
 - Helpful terms: climate change, greenhouse gases, carbon footprint, global temperatures, severe weather events, renewable energy, solar power, wind power, awareness, education
 - Plan your answer before you write, ask yourself:
What is my strongest argument? Is there another opinion I need to address? How do I convince the reader?

[illegible]

Vocabulary training - Climate Change

② Match the vocabulary word on the left with its corresponding definition on the right.

1 Renewable energy sources

a. a person who studies or is an expert in science

2 carbon emissions

b. a machine or piece of equipment that uses energy

3 deforestation

c. the process of converting waste materials into new materials and objects

4 fossil fuels

d. the gases produced by burning fossil fuels

5 scientist

e. the removal of forests, often to clear land for farming or other purposes

6 appliance

f. fuels such as coal, oil, and gas that are formed from the remains of ancient plants and animals

7 recycling

g. sources of energy that are naturally replenished and can be used over and over again

Exercise 2

Exercise 3

③ Fill in the blank with the correct vocabulary word.

1. Many countries are trying to reduce their _____ by promoting the use of renewable energy sources.

2. _____ is the process of breaking down waste materials and turning them into new products.

3. The burning of _____ fuels is one of the main causes of climate change.

4. _____ is the removal of trees and other vegetation from an area of land.

5. A _____ is a person who studies or is an expert in science.

6. An _____ is a machine or piece of equipment that uses energy.

7. _____ energy sources are those that are naturally replenished and can be used over and over again.

Synonym Swap

- ① Choose a topic or theme to write about. Some ideas may include: a hobby or interest, a favourite place to visit, a memorable experience, or a current event.
- ② Write about the topic for a few minutes, using words that come to mind naturally. Don't worry about using synonyms at this stage.
- ③ Review your writing and highlight any words that you feel are too repetitive or could be replaced with a synonym.
- ④ Using a thesaurus, look up synonyms for the highlighted words and select a few that you think would work well in the context.
- ⑤ Rewrite your writing, replacing the original words with the chosen synonyms.
- ⑥ Review your work and evaluate how the use of synonyms has impacted the clarity, flow and impact of your writing.

Example:

Topic: A favourite place to visit - the beach.

Original writing:

I love going to the beach. The beach is so beautiful. The beach is a great place to relax and have fun. I always have a good time at the beach.

Synonym swaps:

I adore visiting the seaside. The coast is incredibly stunning. The seaside is an excellent location to unwind and enjoy yourself. I invariably have a splendid time by the ocean.

Evaluation: The use of synonyms has added variety and depth to the writing, making it more engaging and interesting to read. The vocabulary has also been expanded, which is a key component of improving the variety in writing and speaking skills.