① Write down necessary vocabularies for introducing your work. (3 min)
② Write down simple sentences for introducing your work to others. If you have problems with words you don't know, you can use your phone or a translator. (15 min)
What's your job title?
What company do you work at?
What does your company do?
What are your tasks?

(3) Interview other students about their work. You can use the questions above. If possible, don't just read out your sentences, but try to have a natural conversation. (10 min)
