

- ① In our global digital world, writing an email is the most widely used method of contacting others. On p.2 you will find an email, find labels for the following lines:
- l. 1:
 - l.2:
 - l.3:
 - l.4-5:
 - l.7-9:
 - l.10-15:
 - l.16-17:
- ② Collect content and vocabulary for the main body of an email (that is the sections between l. 3 - 17), highlight formal and informal language, as well as possible differences between English and other languages you might speak.

from friend@mailservice.com

subject: Out-of-school activities

Hey friend,

I hope you're doing well and that school isn't too overwhelming at the moment.

5 I wanted to reach out and ask you a question - what do you enjoy doing outside of school?

I'm always interested in hearing about people's hobbies and interests. My cousin, for example, is a fantastic artist and loves to paint in her free time. It's great to have something to do that you enjoy and that helps you relax.

10 So, what do you like to do? Are you involved in any sports teams, clubs or groups? Do you have a passion for music, writing or any other creative activity? I'm always keen to learn about new things and would love to know more about what you enjoy doing.

Also, I'm curious to know if your parents encourage you to participate in any extracurricular activities. Do they have any suggestions for you or do they let you choose on 15 your own?

Thanks for taking the time to read this email. I can't wait to hear your response!

Best regards,

- ③ Write an answer to this email (200 words), remember to use the structure and words provided on p.1

[illegible]