

Name: RSB Lernwerkstatt E5 Unit 6.6. may / must

6.6. must / may

|            |                                                                                                                 |  |
|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| may / must | Ich kenne den Unterschied zwischen may und must .Ich kann beide Hilfsverben richtig anwenden. |  |
|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|

Selbstcheck: must / may

|           |           |
|-----------|-----------|
| Aufgabe 1 | Aufgabe 2 |
|-----------|-----------|

Check-out

Schätze deine Arbeit ein!

|                   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Selbstständigkeit | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                                | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 |
| Arbeitstempo      | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                                | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 |
| Motivation        | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                               | <input type="radio"/>                                                                | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 | <input type="radio"/>                                                                 |

Die Hilfsverben may und must

Wenn du um Erlaubnis bittest, kannst du es besonders höflich mit may tun:

May I take a photo?

Mit must kannst du ausdrücken, dass etwas notwendig ist oder gemacht werden muss:

I must go now.

Auf must und may folgt immer der Infinitiv des Verbs.

- 1 First read the text SB 105 / 5a. Then do the exercise.

may / must (p105/5b) ★

- 2 Think about the traffic regulations (Verkehrsregeln). Write questions and answers with may and must.

1.  cars stop here?

cars / stop / here?

No, they  drive to the end of the road.

they / drive / to the end of the road

2.

cars / turn / right / here?

No, .

they / go / straight on

3.

they / go / now

No, .

they / wait