Das present progressive verwendest du, wenn du beschreibst, was gerade jetzt passiert.

YOUR TASK

7

Make an audio or video report from your dream holiday place

GET READY

Work with a partner.

- First choose your dream holiday and talk about what you can do there.
- Then write a report from your dream holiday place. Say:
 - where you are Wordbank 6 → p. 150f.
 - where you're staying
 - what you're doing there now
 - what the weather is like
 - what you want to do in the afternoon/evening
 - what you would like to do tomorrow
 - what type of transport you can take
 - why this is a dream holiday place

GO AHEAD

Practise your report.

- You should both say something (at least five sentences).
- When you're talking, your partner can do sound effects (the sea, rain, birds, ...).
- Practise together.
- Record your report at home or at school (on a phone, tablet, camera, computer, music player, ...).

FINISH

Give your report.

- Play your audio or video report to the class.
- Listen to the other students and write your feedback.
- Say what you think of the reports.

Let's go to Australia. What about Sydney?

Yes, OK. We could stay in a nice hotel. We should visit the harbour / go on a boat trip / go surfing / watch surfers / go shopping / ...

That's a good idea. Why don't we go surfing?

Hello from Sydney, Australia! We're staying at a great hotel here. At the moment we're sitting in front of the harbour. The weather is fantastic – it's really hot and sunny.

We want to go to the Aquarium later and in the evening we want to go to the cinema. Tomorrow we'd like to go surfing at the beach. We can go there by bus. Then we want to go on a boat trip. Sydney is a dream holiday place because there are lots of cool places and everybody is very friendly. We don't really want to go back!

We really liked Mila and Nadja's report. We felt we were in Sydney. We'd like to go there too!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS
