

A grid of 20 rows and 12 columns of horizontal lines for writing.

The image shows a 10x10 grid of boxes. The top row is shaded grey and contains 10 boxes, each with a horizontal line. The remaining rows contain various combinations of boxes with horizontal lines, some with multiple lines, and some empty, arranged in a pattern that suggests a sequence or comparison of configurations.

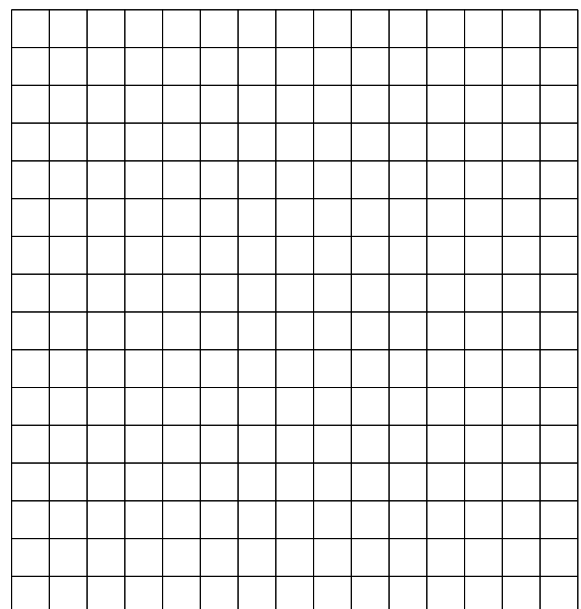

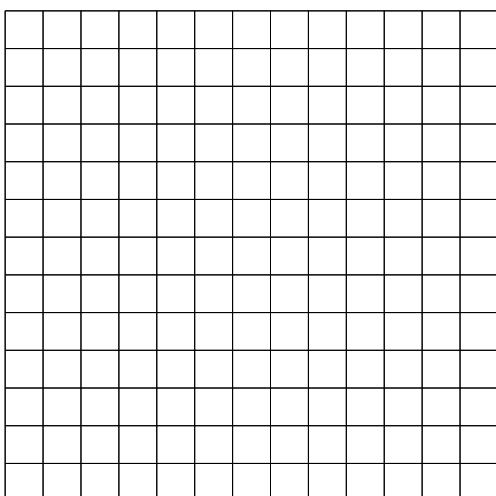

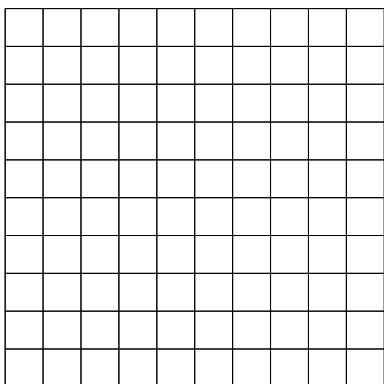

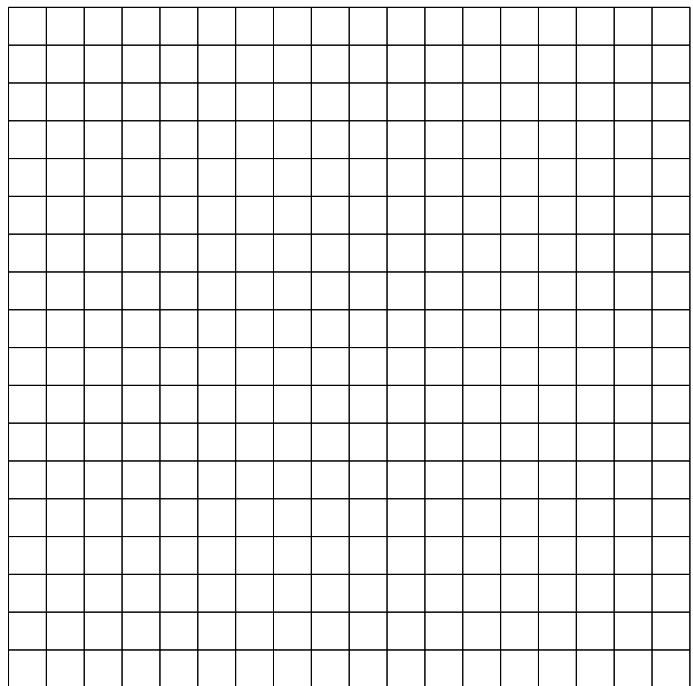

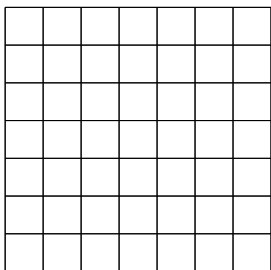

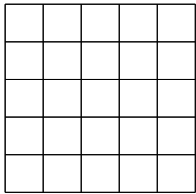

The image displays a grid of 12 vertical columns, each composed of a 2x2 grid of cells. The columns are arranged in two rows of six. The top row consists of columns with heights of 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 cells respectively. The bottom row also consists of columns with heights of 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 cells, but these columns are shifted to the right relative to the top row, starting from the second column position.
