

If I understood the different if-clauses...

What are if-clauses?

If-clauses are conditional clauses.

Meaning:

The happening in the main clause (clause without the if) can only take place when the condition is fulfilled in the if clause.

The difference between type 1 & type 2

If clause type 1

It is possible and very probable for the described situation to happen.

Structure: if + simple present, will-future
(will+ infinitive)

If clause type 2

It is possible but rather unlikely for the described situation to happen.

Structure: if + simple past, conditional 1 (=would + infinitive)
Example: If I studied everyday, I

Notice: The main clause can also stand in the beginning !

Example: I will pass all my exams if I study everyday.

Example: I would pass all my exams if I studied everyday.

If you understand them, you will use the if-

① Complete the sentences. Decide whether to use if clause type 1 or if clause type 2.

If you complete the task now, you a movie tonight. (watch)

We will book the flights today, if we for a destination now. (decide)

If I the lottery, I would buy myself a new house. (win)

If he catches the train, he on time for the lecture. (be)

She say that if she were your friend.

If Beyonce loves if-clauses, you will love them too!

②

Listen to the song twice. Make sure to listen carefully!

a) Which type of if clauses does Beyonce use when she talks about what she would do if she were a boy?

b) Below you can find an excerpt of the lyrics of „If I were a Boy“. Fill in the gaps and make sure that you use the right type of if clause!

If I were a boy

Even just for a day

I out of bed in the morning

And throw on what I wanted and go

If a boy

I think I could understand

How it feels to love a girl

I swear I a better man

If I were a boy

I my phone

Tell everyone it's broken

So they that I was sleeping alone